MALEDETTI VECCHI

I romanzi di Irène Némirovsky sono ambientati negli anni inquieti della sua breve vita: dalla prima guerra mondiale all'avvento del nazismo, dall'euforia degli anni venti alla terribile crisi economica s del tutto le prospettive di ascesa sociale delle nuove generazioni, lasciando il poter in mano a pochi privilegiati, perlopiù attempati. L'attualità quasi inquietante di qu indicare che la storia tende a ripetersi, soprattutto nei suoi lati più oscuri.

Ancora una volta, l'autrice si ispira alla sua costellazione familiare: la madre nemic denaro, la lotta crudele tra generazioni. Da questi presupposti nasce una trama av narrazione incalzante in cui la protagonista e proprio la madre, l'odiata Jezabel. La poco a poco il mistero di questo personaggio difficile, i suoi tormenti, le sue debole ferocia.

Jezabel è ricca, ma la sua ricchezza non le basta e l'amore devoto, l'unico che cerca comprare. Jezabel si mantiene bene negli anni, rimanendo incredibilmente bella e dell'apparenza (la bellezza è soltanto superficie) non basta, deve mentire sulla sua e il vero amore sono finiti in fretta, troppo in fretta, e intanto sua figlia è già cresci pretende il suo posto nella vita; ma se lei cominciasse subito a vivere, la vita di Jeza lasciandola nel limbo senza emozioni della vecchiaia.

La penna dell'autrice non sembra spietata come in altri suoi lavori (Il Ballo). Non è ritratto di Jezabel, svelando il bisogno di essere amata della seduttrice, una creatur diabolico e dal cuore infantile. Non è spietata nel descrivere il lato buono delle rela lasciandoci dolci briciole di speranza da gustare. Il pessimismo rimane invece nel r impossibile tra generazioni, rese nemiche dalla competizione nella lotta per la vita la legge che Jezabel deve seguire per non rinunciare alla sua illusione d'amore, e all che vecchia, meglio assassina che ridicola, meglio morta che senza amore.

Co n'è la vita di quegli anni, nelle alte sfere? L'amore, il piacere e il denaro so o le p donne. I loro uomini inseguono il potere, il rischio, e il denaro. I figli sono legati da trascinano i genitori, ma si muovono contro di loro e non al loro fianco. I legami d

Quando fa il suo ingresso nell'aula di tribunale in cui verrà giudicata per l'omicidio del suo giovanissimo amante, Gladys Eysenach viene accolta dai mormorii di un pubblico sovreccitato. È ancora molto bella, Gladys Eysenach. Ma pochi giorni dopo, allorché vengono pronunciate le arringhe, tutta la sua bellezza pare averla abbandonata, e Gladys è ormai soltanto una donna vecchia e sfinita. La condanna sarà lieve, invece, solo cinque anni: il movente passionale ha fatto sì che le venissero concesse le attenuanti previste dalla legge. Ma qual è la verità - quella verità che Gladys Eysenach ha cercato ad ogni costo di occultare?

Last and final update: 12:30 a.m., Tuesday, November 5. Happy Election Day! At exactly midnight on Tuesday, we ran our simulation model for the final time in this election cycle. Out of 80,000 simulations, Kamala Harris won in 40,012 (50.015%) cases. She did not win in 39,988 simulations (49.985%). Of those, 39,718 were outright wins for Donald Trump and the remainder (270 simulations) were exact 269-269 Electoral College ties: these ties are likely to eventually result in Trump wins in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Let's cut to the chase: So, who's gonna win the election?

Well, honestly, we don't know — but we can give you our best probabilistic guess. This is the landing page for the 2024 Silver Bulletin presidential election forecast. It will always contain the most recent data from the model. [1]

The model is the direct descendant of the f/k/a FiveThirtyEight election forecast [2] and the methodology is largely the same, other than removing COVID-19 provisions introduced for 2020. Other changes from 2020 are documented here. And an archive of the Biden-Trump forecast can be found here.

The polls: who's ahead right now?

The Silver Bulletin polling averages are a little fancy. They adjust for whether polls are conducted among registered or likely voters and house effects. They weight more reliable polls more heavily. And they use national polls to make inferences about state polls and vice versa. It requires a few extra CPU cycles — but the reward is a more stable average that doesn't get psyched out by outliers.

The forecast: so you're telling me there's a chance?

Needless to say, stranger things have happened than a candidate who was behind in the polls winning. And in America's polarized political climate, most elections are close and a candidate is rarely out of the running. So here is how our model translates polls and the other inputs it uses into probabilities in the Electoral College and the popular vote in every state — plus some nightmare scenarios like a repeat of the 2000 Florida recount. American men have been 'emasculated' by the Jezebel Spirit, that LGBTQ+ "moves" are "all about emasculating men," and that Satan is "mocking fathers." A clear pattern in violent extremism is the correlation between male violence and the threat of emasculation. If Harris wins, it will take little effort for a group that has already called January 6th an "election fraud intervention" to push its constituency to violence to "correct" the results.

"Jesus didn't reprimand Jezebel for her deception and seduction... He holds the one who tolerates Jezebel responsible," writes Patterson in Bridging. Her message is clear: Jesus will punish those who tolerate the Jezebel Spirit. This quotation is being harnessed today by websites and videos warning followers to "Stop Tolerating the Jezebel Spirit." If this is tolerating the Jezebel Spirit, what'll happen when they stop?

THE 'JEZEBEL SPIRIT' ISN'T (JUST) BIBLE-BASED MISOGYNY, IT'S A LITERAL DEMON — SO WHAT HAPPENS WHEN THEY 'STOP TOLERATING' IT?

Most people, to the extent that they heard about it at all, probably interpreted the connection between Jezebel and Kamala Harris made by conservative Christians as more or less an expression of sexism and racism filtered through a biblical lens. When the idea of "The Jezebel Spirit" is invoked, it tends not to be fully unpacked, instead becoming a part of the (admittedly, rich) tapestry of prejudice that Jezebel represents. But for those who agree theologically with the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) movement, the truth is far more complicated and threatening.

The NAR is a grouping of loosely-affiliated charismatic churches and religious leaders—often termed "prophets" or "apostles." As Frederick Clarkson writes, it is "the largest religious movement in recent American history, [and] has unabashed, undemocratic, and well documented political aspirations." The NAR is a grouping of loosely-affiliated charismatic churches and religious leaders—often termed "prophets" or "apostles." As Frederick Clarkson writes, it is "the largest religious movement in recent American history, [and] has unabashed, undemocratic, and well documented political aspirations." These political aspirations are deeply intertwined with an idea that demons have infiltrated politics, buoying the Democratic party with diabolical power and influencing the United States through literal "demonization."

For the NAR, "The Jezebel Spirit" isn't simply another way of saying "in the spirit of Jezebel," it's actually a reference to a literal demon called "The Jezebel Spirit." For example, a recent discussion between Lance Wallnau and Mario Murillo, two prophets of the NAR movement, characterized Harris as making use of "witchcraft" and "the occult" in her debate with Trump. As Wallnau explains, "that's where demons come upon you... [and] organize and galvanize in order to make you more powerful than you are." The culprit? "With Kamala, you have a Jezebel Spirit... the personification of intimidation, seduction, domination, and manipulation."

agree with the NAR. Second, the group has a method to "cast out" this demon: spiritual warfare. As the tens of thousands of Million Women attendees can testify, one can battle the Jezebel Spirit directly.

While the language of spiritual warfare that surrounds Harris is certainly concerning, what's even more unsettling is the rhetoric of emasculation that arises whenever the Jezebel Spirit is invoked. In a recent video, for example, Wallnau says that American men have been 'emasculated' by the Jezebel Spirit, that LGBTQ+ "moves" are "all about emasculating men," and that Satan is "mocking fathers." A clear pattern in violent extremism is the correlation between male violence and the threat of emasculation. Most recently, at the Million Women event, Ché Ahn, NAR prophet and pastor of Harvest Rock Church, said, "I decree it by faith that Trump will win on November the 5th.... and Kamala Harris will be cast out," using a term frequently found in both the NAR and some Bible translations in conjunction with demons. "Casting out" the Jezebel Spirit, Ahn and NAR followers believe, would break the power that backs the Harris campaign, casting her out into political irrelevance in the process.

Repeated invocations of the Jezebel Spirit offer both present benefits and a possible dangerous future. First, the rhetoric of the Jezebel Spirit allows the movement to believe its message would be supported were it not for the spirit's influence. As Wallnau implies, Harris isn't actually popular, she just derives a sense of charisma and popularity from the demonic powers that support her. Were these powers to be "cast out," America would agree with the NAR. Second, the group has a method to "cast out" this demon: spiritual warfare. As the tens of thousands of Million Women attendees can testify, one can battle the Jezebel Spirit directly.

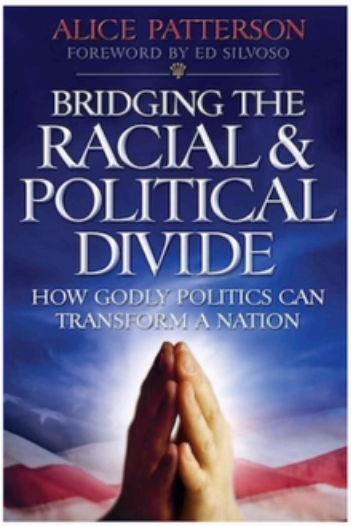
the personification of intimidation, seduction, domination, and manipulation."



The movement has long feared this supposed demon, but the entity took a distinctly political turn in the work of Alice Patterson. Patterson—a leader in the NAR and president of "Justice at the Gate"—claimed at a 2011 prayer rally for Rick Perry that there is "a demonic structure behind the Democratic Party" which she identified as a "Jezebel Structure" in her book, Bridging the Racial & Political Divide.

Patterson uses the idea of Jezebel in two ways: on one hand, she says, there's a Jezebel that acts as "a Spirit or territorial principality"; on the other, it's a state of affairs that allows demons easy political access. This mirrors Biblical verses such as 1 Kings 18:19 in which Jezebel's presence in King Ahab's court allows access to those who worship Baal and Asherah, who were seen as false gods or idols.

By the 2016 presidential race, this ambiguity had vanished: Jezebel had become a personified demonic force in politics. Specifically, the Jezebel Spirit was empowering Hillary Clinton, and the NAR movement made a meal of the supposed connections between the Clintons and the Bible. Jonathan Cahn —the prophetic figure behind "A Million Women"—stated that Hillary/Jezebel and Bill/Ahab had led the US down a path of transformation from a godly nation "to one mired in sexual depravity, gender confusion, and Baal worship in the form of child sacrifice, or abortion, in modern terms." As in the Bible, Jehu/Trump won the day and deposed Jezebel.

For obvious reasons these Biblical connections weren't as clear in 2020, but the Jezebel Spirit still managed to find its way into the discussion. On a live stream seen by almost four hundred thousand people, Wallnau recounts a prophetic dream in which he was in an elevator with Harris when he "knew there was a Jezebel Spirit" and that Harris "was the one the Devil was gonna diabolical power and influencing the United States through literal "demonization."

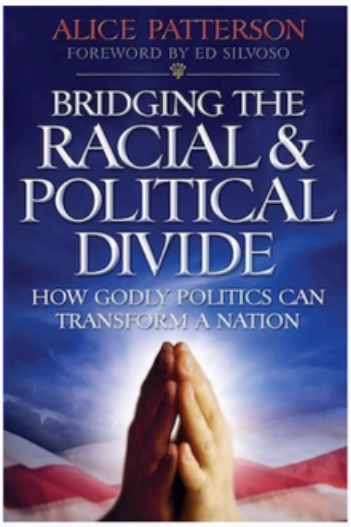
For the NAR, "The Jezebel Spirit" isn't simply another way of saying "in the spirit of Jezebel," it's actually a reference to a literal demon called "The Jezebel Spirit." For example, a recent discussion between Lance Wallnau and Mario Murillo, two prophets of the NAR movement, characterized Harris as making use of "witchcraft" and "the occult" in her debate with Trump. As Wallnau explains, "that's where demons come upon you... [and] organize and galvanize in order to make you more powerful than you are." The culprit? "With Kamala, you have a Jezebel Spirit... the personification of intimidation, seduction, domination, and manipulation."



The movement has long feared this supposed demon, but the entity took a distinctly political turn in the work of Alice Patterson. Patterson—a leader in the NAR and president of "Justice at the Gate"—claimed at a 2011 prayer rally for Rick Perry that there is "a demonic structure behind the Democratic Party" which she identified as a "Jezebel Structure" in her book, Bridging the Racial & Political Divide.

Patterson uses the idea of Jezebel in two ways: on one hand, she says, there's a Jezebel that acts as "a Spirit or territorial principality"; on the other, it's a state of affairs that allows demons easy political access. This mirrors Biblical verses such as 1 Kings 18:19 in which Jezebel's presence in King Ahab's court allows access to those who worship Baal and Asherah, who were seen as false gods or idols.

By the 2016 presidential race, this ambiguity had vanished: Jezebel had become a personified demonic force in politics. Specifically, the Jezebel Spirit was empowering Hillary Clinton

THE 'JEZEBEL SPIRIT' ISN'T (JUST) BIBLE-BASED MISOGYNY, IT'S A LITERAL DEMON — SO WHAT HAPPENS WHEN THEY 'STOP TOLERATING' IT?

Facebook Tweet

Most people, to the extent that they heard about it at all, probably interpreted the connection between Jezebel and Kamala Harris made by conservative Christians as more or less an expression of sexism and racism filtered through a biblical lens. When the idea of "The Jezebel Spirit" is invoked, it tends not to be fully unpacked, instead becoming a part of the (admittedly, rich) tapestry of prejudice that Jezebel represents. But for those who agree theologically with the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) movement, the truth is far more complicated and threatening.

The NAR is a grouping of loosely-affiliated charismatic churches

IFA Election Resources!

Written by David E. Smith

We strongly recommend that every Christian voter prepare to vote in the November 5th General Election by making sure that you know where your candidates stand on the sanctity of human life, transgender confusion, parental rights, religious liberty and other big government policies.

The distribution of this information is one of the ways you can help spread the word about key races — we invite YOU to help distribute this information on social media, to your family, friends and neighbors — or any other local civic group.

2024 VOTER GUIDE

The most updated 2024 General Election Voter Guide is HERE. The Spanish version is HERE. You will not find this information anywhere else!

NOTE: You will need your U.S. Representative (Congress), State Senate, and State House (Representative) district numbers to follow the voter guide. Please click HERE to look up legislative district numbers. If you have misplaced your voter ID card, which has your district numbers, you can also call your county clerk's office. You can click HERE to look up your county clerk.

We have also included a printer-friendly, one-page comparison covering the race for President between Donald Trump and Kamala Harris.

REFERENDUM QUESTIONS on the BALLOT

For guidance on the three referendum questions on your ballot, please click HERE.

SOCIAL MEDIA GRAPHICS FOR SHARING

State, and federal comparison pieces and voting records for sharing on your social media pages can be found HERE.

IFA ENDORSED CANDIDATES

Click HERE you'll find a list of candidates that we believe will serve Illinois with integrity and fight for pro-family values.

EARLY VOTING

The November 5th General Election is a few weeks away, and early voting begins at designated locations on Thursday, September 26th, with additional early voting sites opening on October 24th. As in every election cycle, this election is critical for Illinois as well as for the nation, and it is crucial that your voice is heard. We cannot emphasize strongly enough how important it is to exercise your civic duty to vote and be good stewards of God's amazing gift of self-government.

With this much time to cast our ballot, there is simply no good excuse for not voting in this (or any) election!

But for those who are able to vote in person, here's what our friends at the Illinois Conservative Union and their Election Integrity Program recommend. They believe this is the best way to secure your vote and limit folly:

1.) Request a vote by mail application. Click HERE. Follow the prompts to download a VBM application.

2.) Take your VBM ballot to an early voting location. Note: search under the county where you live for locations. But if you live in the cities of Aurora, Bloomington, Chicago, Danville, East St. Louis, Galesburg, Peoria, or Rockford, search under those cities.

3.) Surrender the VBM ballot. Ask the judge to write across the VBM ballot "SPOILED." Then vote in-person on a paper ballot that you can feed through the tabulator yourself.

Vote by Mail applications are already being accepted by your local County Clerk.

For more information on early voting locations or to order a mail-in ballot, contact your local election authority HERE.

PARTY PLATFORM COMPARISON

The Republican and Democratic Parties are polar opposite on many issues. During their recent conventions over the summer, they revised their platforms. Click HERE to compare them on eight important issues: Abortion/Life, Marriage/Family, Immigration, Judiciary, Religious Liberty, Education, Inflation, and Crime/Military/Safety.

PRAY FOR GOD'S MERCY

Lastly, but most importantly, please pray for our state/nation during this election cycle. And remember: "The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as rivers of water: He turns it wherever He will," Proverbs 21:1. God's judgment on America may be justified, but it is not necessarily imminent! We should pray for mercy and a revival instead.

As Christians we must be salt and light to the culture around us. We must seek and support the election of God-fearing candidates. We ought to expose and shame those who promote evil, including those in the deceitful media.

But, if we believe Scripture when we are told that if "we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9), and that God loves to forgive (Psalm 86:5; 130:4; Micah 7:18; Mathew 26:28; Luke 15:11-31) — we should seek His tender mercies for our neighbors, our state and our nation. It is wise to seek His favor and appeal for His patient loving kindnesses.

VOTE BY MAIL

Plain and simple, vote by mail can lead to folly. Vote by mail used to be called absentee voting. But many states, including Illinois, are now using it as the norm. By all means, if you're unable to physically vote in person, request a vote by mail ballot, but mail it back quickly.

The November 5th General Election is a few weeks away, and early voting begins at designated locations on Thursday, September 26th, with additional early voting sites opening on October 24th. As in every election cycle, this election is critical for Illinois as well as for the nation, and it is crucial that your voice is heard. We cannot emphasize strongly enough how important it is to exercise your civic duty to vote and be good stewards of God's amazing gift of self-government.

With this much time to cast our ballot, there is simply no good excuse for not voting in this (or any) election!

VOTE BY MAIL

Plain and simple, vote by mail can lead to folly. Vote by mail used to be called absentee voting. But many states, including Illinois, are now using it as the norm. By all means, if you're unable to physically vote in person, request a vote by mail ballot, but mail it back quickly.

But for those who are able to vote in person, here's what our friends at the Illinois Conservative Union and their Election Integrity Program recommend. They believe this is the best way to secure your vote and limit folly:

1.) Request a vote by mail application. Click HERE. Follow the prompts to download a VBM application.

2.) Take your VBM ballot to an early voting location. Note: search under the county where you live for locations. But if you live in the cities of Aurora, Bloomington, Chicago, Danville, East St. Louis, Galesburg, Peoria, or Rockford, search under those cities.

3.) Surrender the VBM ballot. Ask the judge to write across the VBM ballot "SPOILED." Then vote in-person on a paper ballot that you can feed through the tabulator yourself.

Vote by Mail applications are already being accepted by your local County Clerk.

For more information on early voting locations or to order a mail-in ballot, contact your local election authority HERE.

PARTY PLATFORM COMPARISON

The Republican and Democratic Parties are polar opposite on many issues. During their recent conventions over the summer, they revised their platforms. Click HERE to compare them on eight important issues: Abortion/Life, Marriage/Family, Immigration, Judiciary, Religious Liberty, Education, Inflation, and Crime/Military/Safety.

Jehu Anointed King of Israel
9:1 Then Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, "Tie up your garments, and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. 2 And when you arrive, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi. And go in and have him rise from among his fellows, and lead him to an inner chamber. 3 Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say, 'Thus says the LORD, I anoint you king over Israel.' Then open the door and flee; do not linger."
4 So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. 5 And when he came, behold, the commanders of the army were in council. And he said, "I have a word for you, O commander." And Jehu said, "To which of us all?" And he said, "To you, O commander." 6 So he arose and went into the house. And the young man poured the oil on his head, saying to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, I anoint you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. 7 And you shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge on Jezebel the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD. 8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel. 9 And I will make the house
TODAY'S QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION AND DISCUSSION
1. Elisha instructed one among the company of prophets to go to Ramoth-Gilead and anoint Jehu, a commander in the army, as king over Israel. What mission did the Lord give to Jehu (see 9:6-10)?
2. According to 2 Kings 10, after Jehu slaughtered all the house of Ahab in fulfillment of Elijah's prophecy (see 1 Kings 21:21-23), what further actions did he take to cleanse the land (see 10:18-28)?

538's final forecast for the presidential race between Vice President Kamala Harris and former President Donald Trump is officially out, and it's a real nail-biter. Our model gives Harris a 50 out of 100 chance of winning the majority of Electoral College votes. Our model gives Trump a 49 out of 100 chance.
The model shifted toward Harris slightly on Monday, Nov. 4, after high-quality polls released over the weekend showed her tied or ahead in the key northern battlegrounds of Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. Polls from more frequently polled, but less well-regarded, firms had shown a more Trump-leaning race but also moved in Harris's direction Monday.
A close race in the polls, though, does not necessarily mean the outcome will be close. All seven swing states are still within a normal polling error of going to the candidate who is currently "losing" in each. While the polls have identified a close race, our model shows what you should expect if those polls are off.
538's forecast is based on a combination of polls and campaign "fundamentals," such as economic conditions, state partisanship and incumbency. It's not meant to "call" a winner, but rather to give you a sense of how likely each candidate is to win. Check out our methodology to learn exactly how we calculate these probabilities.

Maine and Nebraska's congressional districts are shown separately because those states split their Electoral College votes, allotting two to the statewide winner and one to the winner of each district.

What are the closest races?

Use the table below to sort states by name, forecasted margin of victory or two different metrics of how much influence they have over the outcome.

A state's tipping-point chance is the probability it will give the Electoral College winner their 270th electoral vote. The Voter Power Index (VPI) is a relative measure of how likely an individual voter in that state is to determine the outcome of the election.

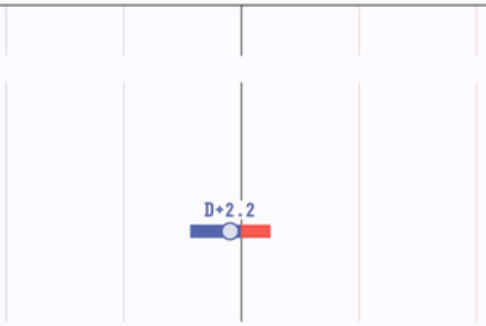
FULL FORECAST

Our final forecast of the popular vote, based on a weighted average of the polls and fundamentals using the weights above. This accounts for the chance that the polls systematically underestimate one candidate.



Forecast components may not exactly add up to full forecast because of rounding and random sampling. (When combining the components, we take a random sample of simulations from each, and they may not exactly match the full sample of simulations.)

Unusual and not-so-unusual scenarios

The probability of each outcome below, according to our simulations.

Harris wins an Electoral College landslide (350+ electoral votes)	8 out of 100
Trump wins an Electoral College landslide (350+ electoral votes)	1 out of 100
Harris wins the Electoral College with <350 electoral votes	41 out of 100
Trump wins the Electoral College with <350 electoral votes	47 out of 100
Harris wins the national popular vote	71 out of 100
Trump wins the national popular vote	29 out of 100
Harris wins the national popular vote by 10+ percentage points	4 out of 100
Trump wins the national popular vote by 10+ percentage points	1 out of 100
Harris wins the popular vote but loses the Electoral College	21 out of 100
Trump wins the popular vote but loses the Electoral College	<1 out of 100
No candidate wins a majority of Electoral College votes	<1 out of 100
Every state votes for the same party that it did in 2020	1 out of 100

HOW THE JEZEBEL SPIRIT (NARCISSISM) INFECTS RELATIONSHIPS AND HOW TO BE FREED

Some have read books or blogs on the spirit of Jezebel but few have understood the spiritual roots behind how it happens and fewer still know how to get people who operate in it to be set freed from the effects of it. There are many Narcissist Groups on Facebook where people gripe, hate and complain about their exes or a parent or other relationships where those who hurt them are called a "narc" but they never know how to truly help those who actually struggle with NPD (Narcissistic Personality Disorder) or have compassion for them like Christ. There are many in the church today who operate in the spirit of Jezebel to some level (both men and women) – as that is the main desire of that spirit – to come into the church and shut

HOW THE JEZEBEL SPIRIT (NARCISSISM) INFECTS RELATIONSHIPS AND HOW TO BE FREED

(979) Comment Share Tweet

Everyone has had relationships with people who have been infected by the spirit of Jezebel (1 and 2 Kings) but most have not known it. Some have read books or blogs on the spirit of Jezebel but few have understood the spiritual roots behind how it happens and fewer still know how to get people who operate in it to be set freed from the effects of it. There are many Narcissist Groups on Facebook where people gripe, hate and complain about their exes or a parent or other relationships where those who hurt them are called a "narc" but they never know how to truly help those who actually struggle with NPD (Narcissistic Personality Disorder) or have compassion for them like Christ. There are many in the church today who operate in the spirit of Jezebel to some level (both men and women) – as that is the main desire of that spirit – to come into the church and shut down the true Holy Spirit and God's plans from being able to operate. They target godly people who are actually doing good to try and stop them. They want to shut down the true prophetic voice of the Lord just like Jezebel did when she reigned with King Ahab as she killed the true prophets of the Lord and wanted to kill Elijah.

The spirit of Jezebel develops in a person due to being hurt growing up when they cannot truly understand or process emotional, physical or sexual trauma and pain. The enemy loves to have the victim start receiving wounds and pain from their own father or mother. What better way to inflict pain on a child then to have it carried out by someone who is supposed to love and care for them. If your dad hurt you then it makes it very hard to believe that God loves us unconditionally because our earthly father is representative of our heavenly Father. So it causes us to not trust God and will behave in ways that are not godly and bad things will happen and we will ruin all of our relationships with our spouse, children and others. The enemy will give us thoughts to cause us to fear, get angry, jealous, feel betrayed, rejected, prideful, have no empathy for anyone but ourselves, feeling compelled to control and manipulate others to do what we want and to never be transparent and honest which stops all true intimacy in relationships.

2 Corinthians 10:3-6 NKJV

[3] For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. [4] For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, [5] casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, [6] and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.

So if we don't take the enemy's thoughts captive then they will take us captive and we will not have peace. Peace is a strong barometer of the level of freedom from demonic thoughts that we are living under. The more peace we walk in every day personally the more free we are from the demonic torment in our minds. If you have a relationship with someone who has no peace and says things to hurt or control you, then you know that they are battling demonic thoughts and need to have their past soul wounds healed by Jesus, forgive those who hurt them, repent for their own pride and sin and then command the demonic spirits to go. This is called deliverance – and often takes time for people to truly complete the process as the demons want to remind them of all who hurt them and all the injustices to keep anger and bitterness in their hearts. The National Science Foundation did a study in 2005 which found that the average person could have up to 50-60,000 thoughts a day of which 80% were negative and 95% repetitive from the day before. Demons give us negative thoughts and remind us of all the bad things that happened to us in the past and present so we don't forgive and they get to keep tormenting us.

The majority of relationships in the world today are comprised between a person who struggles more with the spirit of Jezebel who targets someone with the spirit of Ahab who has a more gentler spirit that will tolerate them so the Jezebel spirit can control them and operate. In the Bible in 1 and 2 Kings Jezebel would control and manipulate and do very evil and wicked things but Ahab had the position of authority as he was King – yet would tolerate and allow Jezebel to do the dirty work killing anyone who stood in her way. She killed God's prophets and sacrificed babies to Molech. Ahab

A TWO-YEAR BIBLE READING PLAN

Thus Jehu wiped out Baal from Israel. But Jehu did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin-that is, the golden calves that were at Bethel and in Dan. - 2 Kings 10:28-29

2 Kings 9–10

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

9:1 Then Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, "Tie up your garments, and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. 2 And when you arrive, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi. And go in and have him rise from among his fellows, and lead him to an inner chamber. 3 Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say, 'Thus says the LORD, I anoint you king over Israel.' Then open the door and flee; do not linger."

4 So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. 5 And when he came, behold, the commanders of the army were in council. And he said, "I have a word for you, O commander." And Jehu said, "To which of us all?" And he said, "To you, O commander." 6 So he arose and went into the house. And the young man poured the oil on his head, saying to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, I anoint you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. 7 And you shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, so that I may
